License agreement with BMW on Husqvarna brand

Husqvarna has signed a license agreement with BMW of Germany regarding the use of the Husqvarna brand for motorcycles. The agreement was signed in connection with BMW's acquisition of the motorcycle-operation from MV Agusta of Italy, which has now been finalized.

The license agreement stipulates that BMW has the right to use the Husqvarna brand for motorcycles as well as related products and services.

Husqvarna manufactured motorcycles from 1903 until 1987. The operation was then sold to Cagiva of Italy, which is part of MV Agusta. Husqvarna is one of the world's oldest and most renowned motorcycle brands, with a large number of world championships in Enduro and motocross.
