Change in Husqvarna Group's Management Team

Husqvarna Group announces that Leigh Dagberg, Executive Vice President People & Organization, will be leaving the Group. Maria Rönnerberg, Senior Vice President People & Organization in the Husqvarna Forest & Garden Division, will be appointed as her successor, effective August 1, 2025.

"I would like to sincerely thank Leigh for her significant contributions to the Husqvarna Group over the last 12 years. Leigh has made a positive and lasting impact in maturing our People & Organization function, shaping our employee and culture agenda and sensitively guiding us during the pandemic and other significant events. At the same time, I am pleased to welcome Maria Rönnerberg who will continue the important journey of ensuring we have the right capabilities, organization and culture to win in the future. Her broad experience and proven track record, combined with knowledge of our company, make her the ideal candidate to take up this challenge", says Pavel Hajman, CEO of Husqvarna Group.

Leigh joined Husqvarna Group in 2012. Maria Rönnerberg joined Husqvarna Group in 2022. Maria will be part of Group Management and report to the CEO.
