Husqvarna Group Recognized as One of Europe's Best Employers by Financial Times and Statista

Husqvarna Group has been recognized as one of Europe's Best Employers in the inaugural 2025 ranking by the Financial Times and Statista, underscoring the company's commitment to creating an attractive and supportive workplace.

The Europe's Best Employers 2025 list rates 1,000 companies with more than 500 employees across 26 industries, based on various employee surveys and questionnaires, assessing factors such as fair wages, flexibility, trust in leadership, and strong employment benefits.

"Being recognized among Europe's best employers is a testimony to our commitment to fostering an inclusive and dynamic workplace. At Husqvarna Group, we believe that investing in our people is fundamental to our success, and we will continue striving to create an environment where employees feel valued, empowered, and inspired to grow", says Leigh Dagberg, Executive Vice President of People & Organization at Husqvarna Group.

Also recognized as a diversity leader by Financial Times, Husqvarna Group works hard to ensure its cultural values of Bold, Dedicated and Care serve as a lever for business and individual success. Husqvarna Group employs over 12,300 people across 40 countries and 150 locations.
